- ADRA club race registration problem

- We had around a dozen racers, new and old, trying to race with us without paying the ADRA sign-up fee
- Problem stemmed from sign up booths at entrance to track. New personnel were telling racers that all they had to pay was the track entrance fee.
- Discussed this with track manager. Made signs up to be taped by window at track booths telling racers to go to club booths and pay their fees to race with prospective clubs.
